

Why don't I see any available make-up openings when I click to reschedule?

The make up links are updated weekly on Sunday evenings, and as cancellations occur.

The number of make up slots available is dependent on the number of foreseen cancellations. Time slots are limited and fill quickly, so if you're not seeing openings for the current week, they've most likely been taken or we do not have many to offer. However, please check back again! Make up lessons don't expire, and you can schedule at any time during the year.

Please keep in mind that although we offer make-up lessons to provide our students a little flexibility, they are not owed or guaranteed. And, there are no regularly recurring make up slots within our weekly class schedule. Thank you! We appreciate your understanding!
