

Anna Sammel, Violin & Viola

Anna Sammel is a long-time Stafford resident and holds her Bachelors of Music Performance from James Madison University in 2016, studying classically under Dr. Wanchi Huang. She spent four years in the JMU Symphony Orchestra and a concert cycle with the Waynesboro Symphony. In addition to large ensembles, she also has several years of chamber music experience including: pit orchestras (for musical and operas), string quartets, and chamber orchestras. She loves to play classical music, but also enjoys bluegrass, tangos, and arranging popular tunes. Anna offers private violin and viola instruction to all ages, beginning through advanced level.
