

Steve Wellman, Voice

Steve Wellman holds his Bachelor of Music degree from the North Carolina School of the Arts, and a Master of Divinity from Regent University. For more than two decades, Professor Wellman was a member of the United States Navy Band Sea Chanters, both as a vocalist and as a conductor. He has performed in numerous operas and musicals, including Carmen, Gianni Schicci, La Boheme, Carousel, and The Marriage of Figaro, and with the National Lyric Opera Company, Civic Opera, Alexandria Symphony, Prince William Symphony, Georgetown Symphony and Winston-Salem Opera Company. He joined the Music Department in 1980. He offers private vocal instruction, vocal coaching, and audition preparation.